

VISA PURCHASING

Ideal for small to medium-size business expenditures, the Visa Purchasing card is a great way to simplify your company's purchasing process, reduce paperwork, and save time and money.

The Visa Purchasing card is the right solution for:

- Medium-size companies to multinational corporations
- Companies using traditional methods of generating, tracking, and reconciling purchases
- Organizations looking to reduce costs by streamlining their purchasing and accounting processes
- Organizations looking to maximize efficiencies in procurement and enterprise solutions

How your company can benefit from using the Visa Purchasing card:

More convenience, less paperwork. Using the Visa Purchasing card reduces the need for requisitions, purchase orders, invoices, and checks. With the appropriate front-end controls in place, employees are empowered to make purchases without multiple levels of approval and time-consuming paperwork.

Significant cost savings. Visa Commercial Solutions can help you streamline business processes and reduce costs. Research indicates that companies with purchasing card programs were able to lower purchasing process costs by an average of 70 percent.

More control over spending. Companies using the card can easily monitor and control expenses and set spending limits with suppliers, allowing for greater leverage to negotiate discounts. In addition, you can maintain control of employee spending without having to manually approve each transaction.

Detailed reporting and analysis.* Visa's reporting solutions allow you to review your transaction details. Transaction reports can be selected to meet specific business requirements. Data can be fed into your accounting system, providing the most current and accurate information for analyzing purchasing expenditures.

Worldwide acceptance. The Visa Purchasing card is welcome at millions of locations worldwide and throughout the Visa Global ATM Network. No other payment brand is more accepted. Best of all, you can use the card for purchasing everything from office supplies and computers to business services such as catering and employment agencies.

Contact your financial institution about the Visa Purchasing card today!

*Varies by country.